Simon Fraser University (SFU): SFU is in British Columbia and while few of our students move across the country to attend school in British Columbia, some of you may want to consider the possibility. SFU has a new Undergraduate Scholars Entrance Scholarship Program you might be interested in. For more information, visit: www.yourstory.sfu.ca

Potential Graduates of 2018: Grade 12 students, as you consider post-secondary education and the cost of attending post-secondary institutions, check out these institution websites carefully and look for deadlines for applying for scholarships and bursaries. If you are not sure what to look for or where to look, please see a counsellor for assistance. The NSCC scholarships and bursaries become available later in the year.
