

Guidance News October 3, 2016, Part A

Counsellors:

Sarah Jenson (Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday)

Debra Hofrichter (Thursday, Friday)

Websites from Grade 12 Information Presentation:

<http://www.servicecanada.gc.ca/eng/lifeevents/job.shtml>

Job search tools supported by the government of Canada

www.careercruising.com

See Counsellor for username and password!

This is an interactive site for students that includes, skill and interest inventories, job profiles, post-secondary school information and a resumé builder. Students can create an account and sign in to save their resumés and quiz results. Canadian information

<http://www.schoolfinder.com>

Search for colleges and universities world-wide, information on tuition and size of school is provided as well as contact information.

www.acadiau.ca

Acadia University

www.nsc.ca

Nova Scotia Community College

<http://forestheights.ednet.ns.ca/>

Forest Heights Community School

Other Useful Websites:

www.novascotiacaareeroptions.ca

This site includes skill inventories, career quizzes, information on the job market and job profiles.

www.collegeboard.com

This is an American site for searching colleges. This is also the place to register for SAT's.

<https://yconic.com/>

Students can register and login to complete a profile. The site will match them with potential scholarship opportunities.

www.studentscholarships.org/

Canadian site for searching school profiles, career information, trades programs and more. You can get a login and password and match with possible scholarships from their databank.

www.canlearn.ca

This is a Government of Canada web page. This includes information and links to information on student loans, RESP's, career planning tools and a school finder.

www.eco.ca

This site has information on environmental careers which includes internships, career profiles, scholarships and self-assessment tools.

www.rcmp.ca

Their general website includes information on careers and how to join.

www.parentsascareercoaches.ca

This program is designed to educate and inform parents around career options so they can better support and guide their sons' and daughters' education and career choices. Parents can sign up for workshops on this site and when enough interest is generated, sessions will be held either here at Park View or at NSCC.

www.forces.ca

Information on military careers.

www.workitns.ca

This site provides information for students and parents on apprenticeship and the skilled trades.